Prenatal Care in Gurgaon: Prenatal care is essential for ensuring a healthy pregnancy and the well-being of both the mother and the baby. It involves regular medical check-ups, monitoring the baby's growth, and addressing any complications that may arise during pregnancy. Early and consistent prenatal care can help detect and prevent potential health issues, ensuring a safe delivery and reducing risks such as preterm labor or birth defects. For expectant mothers seeking prenatal care in Gurgaon, Dr. Veenu Agarwal offers expert guidance throughout the pregnancy journey. With her extensive experience in obstetrics, Dr. Agarwal provides personalized care, focusing on the nutritional, emotional, and physical health of the mother, ensuring optimal outcomes for both mother and child.
