Marriage Registration in Delhi: A Comprehensive Guide: Marriage registration is a legal process that formalizes a couple's union, ensuring that their relationship is recognized under the law. In Delhi, like in other parts of India, marriage registration is governed by specific acts, and the process has been simplified in recent years through online services. Marriage Registration in Delhi is essential not only to obtain legal rights as a married couple but also for various practical reasons such as visa applications, joint bank accounts, property rights, and inheritance.

Legal Framework for Marriage Registration

Any Delhi Marriage Registration is done based on the following two primary acts:

1. The Hindu Marriage Act, 1955: This act applies to Hindus, Buddhists, Sikhs, and Jains. The conditions for a valid marriage under this act include:
 - o Neither party should have a living spouse from a previous marriage.
 - o Both parties must be of sound mind and capable of giving consent.
 - o The bridegroom should be at least 21 years old and the bride should be at least 18 years old.
2. The Special Marriage Act, 1954: This act is secular and applies to all citizens of India, irrespective of their religion. It is often used when the marriage is between individuals of different religions or when the couple opts for a civil ceremony rather than a religious one.
