FSSAI Registration in Noida: Getting FSSAI registration in Noida is a straightforward process that ensures your food business operates legally. As a consultant, I recommend starting with basic registration if your annual turnover is under 12 lakhs. You will need documents like ID proof, business details, and premises photos. The process typically takes 15-20 days, and our team guides you through each step. Remember, operating without FSSAI registration can lead to heavy penalties, so it is crucial to comply with food safety standards.
